ADMISSION.

All Candidates for Priests' Orders, with full qualifications, according to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church, are admitted. Persons with full literary qualifications, expecting to become candidates, may be admitted by permission of the Dean.

In all cases, applicants for admission must have passed the examination provided for in Title I., Canon 3, § vii. [2]; and in case of applicants for admission to the Middle or Senior Class, a satisfactory examination in the studies of such class may be required.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

There is Daily Morning and Evening Prayer, and a Celebration of the Holy Communion on all Sundays and Holy Days, in the Chapel of St. Luke.

TERM AND VACATIONS.

The School year is of one term, beginning in September, and ending in June. There is a recess at Christmas, and another at Easter.

EXPENSES.

Tuition is free; as also are the rooms in the School buildings, where provision is made for about thirty students. Aid is granted to persons needing it, on terms made known on application to the Dean.
